EDUCATION

University of Oregon

Ph.D. Prevention Science, Quantitative Methods Specialization June 2020

“The dynamic interplay between parental depressive symptoms and child behavior problems on child psychiatric disorders within the context of an adoption design”

Committee: Leslie Leve (Chair), John Seeley, Elizabeth Stormshak, David DeGarmo, Sanjay Srivastava

M.S. Prevention Science June 2018

“Does parental warmth moderate longitudinal associations between infant attention control and children’s inhibitory control?”

Advisor: Leslie Leve

University of Washington

Graduate Coursework-Public Administration 2014- 2015

Project: Kent School District, Levy Analysis

Delta State University

Graduate and Continuing Education Coursework- Education 2012- 2014

University of Oregon

B.S. Psychology & Political Science 2012

Substance Abuse Prevention Certificate

Honors Theses: “Infant orienting predicts executive functioning”

“The disconnect between social science and political decision making”

Advisors: Jeffrey Measelle & Jennifer Ablow, Gerald Berk

CURRENT POSITIONS
